

Students will land on this page once they click on the StarRez Housing Portal link and sign in. Once they click on “Apply for Housing,” they will be prompted to choose a term.

Currently, the “Academic Year 2020 – 2021” is the only option. Students must click on the “Apply” button to begin the application.

The next page will ask them to confirm their information. Incoming Freshmen student status should be “First Year.” If not, they will need to contact Housing at 828-262-6111. Once they click on the “Start Your Application” button, they will enter Emergency Contact Information and Missing Person Information (not pictured). Students may list two different contacts or the same contact. The Emergency Contact email they enter will be used to send a copy of the Housing Contract if they are under the age of 18.

Room Preferences

Please Note:
Your room preferences do not guarantee placement in your first choice. Preferences will be met based on room availability and in the order of which they were received.
Incoming freshmen can preference suite-style housing, but should expect to be placed in a traditional hall.

ADD PREFERENCE

Roommate Matching Profile

Tell us about yourself!

This information may be used to match compatibility with a potential roommate. Some helpful things to include may be your likes/dislikes, interests, major, Learning Community or Honors status, etc.

Please note: If you have a specific roommate preference, you and your roommate(s) must choose "Yes" for the "Do you want to be searchable..." question below. You will be unable to locate them in the system to create your roommate group otherwise. You will be able to search for a roommate by profile answers or their @appstate.edu username on the following "Roommate Group" page.

Please describe yourself (this will be searchable information)

Roommate Groups

Some roommate group notes:

You will be unable to request a roommate who has a different housing student status (i.e. freshman, continuing, transfer, appeal) than you.

If you are hoping to live with a person who has a different status than you, that option is not available as part of the roommate matching and roommate group process in this housing application. Please complete this form in AppSync to request a roommate with a different status than you: Housing Roommate Request for different student types

You must already have a Fall 2020 housing application (new students) and/or an assignment (continuing students) to request a roommate who has a different student status than you. Continuing students who do not receive on-campus housing during the reapplication selection process are not guaranteed on-campus housing due to a roommate request.

If you are hoping for a roommate who has the same student status as you, please continue below with your roommate group.

- To search for a specific student, please use the "Search by @appstate.edu Username" option.
- To search for students who provided similar lifestyle information, use the "Search for Roommates by Profile" option.
- To have StarRez suggest a roommate for you based on the information you provided about yourself, use the "Suggest Roommates" option.
- To search for a room group that has already been created, use the "Search for Roommate Group" option.

Not In a Group

You are not a member of any roommate groups. If you do not have a preferred roommate, please do not create and confirm a roommate group of one.

ATTENTION INCOMING STUDENTS! If you are interested in a Residential Learning Community (RLC), you can apply once your general housing application is complete and your Residence Hall License Contract is signed by you (and parent/guardian if you are under 18).

For information on our RLCs, check out housing.appstate.edu. To apply, navigate to the "RLC Application" tab above.

Disability Accommodations

University Housing strives to provide equal access to housing for all residents in accordance with Section 504 of the Rehabilitation Act, the Americans with Disabilities Act as amended by the ADA Amendments Act of 2008 (ADA), the Fair Housing Act, and other applicable federal and state regulations that prohibit discrimination on the basis of disability. The Office of Disability Resources (ODR) is the designated office to determine reasonable accommodations for qualified individuals with disabilities.

Service Animals (SA) and Emotional Support Animals (ESA)

Per the University's Animals on Campus policy, animals that assist individuals with disabilities to fully access and participate within the residential community may be approved to live within the residence halls.

Students requesting a Service Animal (hereinafter "SA") or Emotional Support Animal (hereinafter "ESA") within University Housing must:

Complete the applicable ODR Student Procedure for requesting accommodations; ESA documentation guidelines can be found in the Animals on Campus policy, Section 4.4. SA requests do not have to be accompanied by documentation. If determined eligible to have an SA or ESA in University Housing, the specific animal must also be approved. Required information for the animal shall include veterinarian certification (See Animal Guidelines and Expectations for further information regarding this certification) and a color photograph of the animal. Agree to adhere to Appalachian's Animals on Campus Policy, Policy # 303.24. Agree to adhere to the University's Animal Guidelines and Expectations. If the request is approved, University Housing will contact the resident and, if applicable, roommate or suitemates via their Appalachian email account to electronically sign the Animal Guidelines and Expectations. Once the process is fully completed, ODR will send official notification via the resident's Appalachian email account that the animal can begin residing in University Housing.

Gender Considerations

Students who need housing considerations due to gender-related needs should contact the Office of Multicultural Student Development and complete the Gender Consideration Form.
