This Residence Hall License Contract ("Contract") is a binding legal agreement between you ("Student") and Appalachian State University ("University") for a term of one academic year. The Contract details a set of terms and conditions to which the Student must adhere. Additionally, the Contract gives the Student permission to utilize a residence hall space, and once an assignment is possible, guarantees a space (subject to reassignment) on the campus of Appalachian State University.

Article I. Term and Eligibility

- 1) Contract Term - This contract obligates the Student to live in the residence hall as a secondary, temporary residence as long as the Student is enrolled during the academic year for both the fall and spring semesters. The room is to be vacated no later than 24 hours after the Student's last examination or by noon on the date when the residence halls close each semester (fall and spring). If the Student enters into this contract for the spring semester only, the Student is obligated to this contract through the final closing of the residence halls for the spring semester. The opening and closing of the residence halls will follow the University's academic calendar published and approved by the Chancellor. The University reserves the right to modify this schedule in accordance with officially announced changes in the University's calendar. Unless otherwise notified, residence halls will be closed during the Winter Break (between fall and spring semesters). When residence halls are closed for Winter Break, the Student will be required to vacate their rooms; belongings may remain in the rooms unless the Student is moving to a new assignment for the Spring Semester.
- 2) Residency Requirement and Exceptions –
 - a) All students classified by Admissions as freshmen are required to live in a residence hall unless an exemption is granted by University Housing.
 - b) University Housing also requires any student who enrolls at the University who earned a diploma from a high school, early college or middle college less than twelve (12) months prior to their enrollment as a degree-seeking student at the University to live in a residence hall unless an exemption is granted by University Housing.
 - c) Exemptions may be granted for the following reasons:

 - ii) Student is married, or;
 - iii) Student is a single parent, or;
 - iv) Student is 25 years of age or older, or;
 - v) Student is a military veteran.
 - d) Exemption requests must be submitted in writing using the form provided at <http://housing.appstate.edu>, and documentation to support the request is required. Freshmen who are not approved for an exemption will be obligated for a space in the residence halls per the terms of this Contract.
- 3) Eligibility and requirements – To qualify for on-campus housing the Student must be currently enrolled, full-time (12 or more credit hours), and have paid all applicable charges related to on-campus housing. If the Student falls below full-time status but retains more than 3 credit hours, the Student may be permitted to remain in the residence hall as long as the Student is not in violation of any University policies and/or regulations.
- 4) Acceptance of the Contract – All students wishing to live in a residence hall must read and electronically sign and accept this Contract through the online housing application process. By submitting a completed housing application, the Student is acknowledging having read and agreeing to abide by all conditions, terms and policies specified in the Contract and the Code of Student Conduct & Academic Integrity (the "Code of Student Conduct"). The Student's signature is considered binding and the Student is expected to fulfill the terms and conditions of the Contract upon acceptance by University Housing. If the Student is under the age of 18 at the time of acceptance, the signature of a parent or legal guardian will also be required on the License Contract.
- 5) Space availability –
 - a) Freshmen: Spaces in the residence halls are reserved and guaranteed to students who are classified as freshmen. Assignments are made in date of application order and students are encouraged to apply as early as possible, late admits/applicants may be placed in temporary housing;
 - b) Returning students: Returning students currently residing on campus have the opportunity to reapply for housing for the next academic year on or before the deadlines set by University Housing during the prior spring semester. Returning students who did not meet the published deadlines and off-campus students who wish to live on campus will have an opportunity to apply for available spaces after the reapplication process is complete, and may be offered spaces based on their date of application until all available spaces are filled. On-campus housing is not guaranteed for returning students.
 - c) Transfers: New transfer students are not guaranteed housing and will be offered space if available after incoming freshman and returning students have been assigned. University Housing will make every reasonable effort to notify transfer students by June 1 if space is available for the upcoming Fall semester and by December 1 for the upcoming Spring semester.
- 6) Re-application Required for Renewal – This Contract is only for the term(s) indicated. Creation of any contract for future academic terms is contingent upon space availability and approval of a new application in accordance with procedures published by University Housing. It is the responsibility of the Student to follow published procedures for the reapplication process. University Housing does not guarantee housing to continuing students, readmitted or transfer students.
- 7) Equal Opportunity Policy - Appalachian State University is committed to providing equal opportunity in education and employment to all applicants, students, and employees. University does not discriminate in access to its educational programs and activities, or with respect to hiring or the terms and conditions of employment, on the basis of race, color, national origin, religion, sex, gender identity and expression, political affiliation, age, disability, veteran status, or sexual orientation. The University actively promotes diversity among students and employees.
- 8) Consolidations and Reassignments – Students without roommates may be required to move in together (consolidate). University Housing maintains the right to assign, re-assign and/or adjust the occupancy of rooms at any time for any reason reasonably related to institutional interests. If a transfer or returning student cancels their contract on or after July 1 through the date the residence halls open, the Student is liable for the entire amount of the housing charges for the fall semester. Since this Contract is for an entire academic year, students who are residents in the fall semester are liable and expected to continue to occupy rooms in the spring semester.

If the Student does not properly withdraw, the University will assess a $50 charge for resulting administrative costs. The Student must contact the Registrar's Office to withdraw from the University.
- 2) Spring Semester Contract Cancellations – Students who request housing to begin in the spring semester will be subject to the terms of this Contract and will be expected to fulfill the obligations of this Contract unless written request of cancellation for this Contract is received by December 1. Requests for cancellation received after December 1 may result in the full semester charge being applied to the Student's account.
- 3) Contract cancellation after occupancy is scheduled to begin - Students are not permitted to cancel this Contract after occupancy is scheduled to begin, except for students officially withdrawing from the University. Once occupancy has begun, the Student is responsible for the entire amount of the housing charges for the term of this Contract.
- 4) Contract cancellation for official withdrawals from the University – Students who are planning to withdraw from the University must contact the Registrar's office to complete an official withdrawal. Notices from the Registrar's office are the only withdrawal notification accepted by University Housing. Once the Student officially withdraws from the University the Student will be expected to move out of their residence hall room and check out officially with a Housing staff member within 24 hours. If the Student does not properly withdraw or check out of housing, the University will assess a $50 charge for administrative fees.  - d) Failure to occupy the assigned space before the established deadline for each semester or abandonment of the space by the Student (Failure to occupy the space does not automatically result in contract cancellation if the student has signed the housing contract and remains an enrolled student at Appalachian State University.)
 - e) The Student's continued disruption to any residence hall community by behaving in a way that is not conducive to group living and/or has a negative effect on other students in the community.

Should this Contract be terminated by the University, the Student will be required to vacate the residence hall within 24 hours unless special permission, in writing, has been granted by the Director of University Housing or designee. In the event the Student does not vacate within the allotted time period, any property remaining in the residence hall room or building may be treated as abandoned property or stored and held under limited access. All charges for removal, disposal and storage will be assessed to the Student. The Student shall remain liable for all charges assessed during the term of this Contract. If termination of this Contract results from action for the failure to follow policies, the Student will be charged 50% of the remaining Contract fees from the date the Student checks out of the residence hall and the License Contract is terminated.
