

PLEASE READ THIS DOCUMENT CAREFULLY

This Residence Hall License Contract ("Contract") is a binding legal agreement between you ("Student") and Appalachian State University ("University") for a term of one academic year. The Contract details a set of terms and conditions to which the Student must adhere. Additionally, the Contract gives the Student permission to utilize a residence hall space, and once an assignment is possible, guarantees a space (subject to reassignment) on the campus of Appalachian State University.

Article I. Term and Eligibility

- 1) Contract Term - This contract obligates the Student to live in the residence hall as a secondary, temporary residence as long as the Student is enrolled during the summer session(s). The room is to be vacated no later than 24 hours after the Student's last examination or by noon on the date when the residence halls close each session. If the Student enters into this contract for summer session II only, the Student is obligated to this contract through the final closing of the residence halls for summer session II. The opening and closing of the residence halls will follow the University's academic calendar published and approved by the Chancellor. The University reserves the right to modify this schedule in accordance with officially announced changes in the University's calendar. Unless otherwise notified, residence halls will be closed during the break between spring semester and first summer session.
- 2) Eligibility and requirements - To qualify for on-campus housing, the Student must be currently enrolled, taking at least one summer class per session, and have paid all applicable charges related to on-campus housing -or- Students must be approved by an affiliated campus department or group for summer housing based on summer needs for that entity.
- 3) Acceptance of the Contract - All students wishing to live in a residence hall must read and electronically sign and accept this Contract through the online housing application process. By submitting a completed housing application, the Student is acknowledging having read and agreeing to abide by all conditions, terms and policies specified in the Contract and the Code of Student Conduct & Academic Integrity (the "Code of Student Conduct"). The Student's signature is considered binding and the Student is expected to fulfill the terms and conditions of the Contract upon acceptance by University Housing. If the Student is under the age of 18 at the time of acceptance, the signature of a parent or legal guardian will also be required on the License Contract.
- 4) Space availability -
 - a) Spaces in the summer residence hall are reserved for students who are enrolled in classes for the summer session. Assignments are made in date of application order until all available spaces are filled and students are encouraged to apply as early as possible.
 - b) Students may apply for one or both summer sessions, applying for the first summer session does not guarantee or obligate a student to live in the summer residence hall for the second session, it is the responsibility of the student to apply for each summer session as needed and inform University Housing of any changes to their summer plans.
 - c) Private rooms will be offered on a space available basis each session. Students assigned to a private room will be billed an additional charge. Students offered a private room for the first summer session, may not be able to maintain the private room for the second summer session.
- 5) Re-application Required for Renewal - This Contract is only for the term(s) indicated. Creation of any contract for future academic term(s) is contingent upon space availability and approval of a new application in accordance with procedures published by University Housing. It is the responsibility of the Student to follow published procedures for the reapplication process. University Housing does not guarantee housing to continuing students, readmitted or transfer students.
- 6) Equal Opportunity Policy - Appalachian State University is committed to providing equal opportunity in education, activities, resources, and employment to all applicants, students, and employees. University does not discriminate in access to its educational programs and activities, or with respect to hiring or the terms and conditions of employment, on the basis of race, color, national origin, religion, sex, gender identity and expression, political affiliation, age, disability, veteran status, or sexual orientation. The University actively promotes diversity among students and employees.
- 7) Consolidations and Reassignments - Students without roommates may be required to move in together (consolidate). University Housing maintains the right to assign, re-assign and/or adjust the occupancy of rooms at any time for any reason related to institutional interests, in University's sole discretion. If at any time a vacancy exists in the room in which the Student is assigned, the room must be ready for occupancy by another Student at all times.

Article II. Payment/Contract Fees

- 1) Billing - Student will be billed for housing and meal plan fees on a summer session basis. Cancellation fees will be billed once the cancellation has been processed. Damage charges, if assessed, may be billed to the Student's account following their check-out from a residence hall space. All charges are billed to the Student's account and can be paid in the University Student Accounts office. Payment plans may be available through Student Accounts. Students will be billed the pro-rated nightly rate for any additional nights in residence outside of the stated summer term housing dates.
- 2) Room and Board Rates - Rates for housing and meal plans are set annually by the University and are posted on the University Housing website. The Student is expected to pay the rate that is approved for the summer sessions.
- 3) Meal Plans - All students living in the residence halls are required to participate in one of the University's meal options each summer session. The Low Option meal plan is not available to freshmen. Additional information on meal plan options can be found on the Food Services website; <http://foodservices.appstate.edu/>.
- 4) Damages - Additional charges may be assessed for a lock recombination or replacement, vandalism and/or any room damages either during the term of this Contract or at move out. Any belongings left by the Student in the residence halls will be stored for 30 days before being discarded, and the Student will be assessed a storage and disposal charge.

Article III. Contract Cancellation

- 1) Contract cancellation prior to start of the summer session - The University is incurring an administrative expense to hold a space for the Student. If a student has been assigned a space on campus and decides to cancel the space prior to the start of the summer session to live off campus, the Student will be charged a $75 cancellation fee to cover administrative costs.
- 2) Contract cancellation after occupancy is scheduled to begin - Notwithstanding an official withdrawal, Students are not permitted to cancel this Contract at any time during the term of the Contract. Any Student who attempts to cancel during the term of this Contract shall remain liable for the full amount of housing charges for the entire term of this Contract.
- 3) Contract cancellation for official withdrawals from the University During the Term of the Contract - Students who are planning to withdraw from the University after the summer term begins must contact the Registrar's office to complete an official withdrawal. Notices from the Registrar's office are the only withdrawal notification accepted by University Housing. Once the Student officially withdraws from the University the Student will be expected to move out of their residence hall room and check out officially with a Housing staff member within 24 hours. If the Student does not properly withdraw or check out of housing, the University will assess a $50 charge for administrative fees. Students who officially withdraw from the University will receive a prorated housing refund based on the date they check out of their residence hall. Students who were approved by an affiliated campus entity to reside in the halls over the summer will follow the same withdrawal process should their relationship with the approved department end during the summer term.

- 4) Contract Cancellation by the University – The University maintains the right to terminate this Contract for good cause at any time. Examples of good cause, include, but are not limited to:
- a) Failure of the Student to pay the room rent as set by the University and published on the University Housing website by the announced deadlines;
 - b) A change in the Student's status, including academic or disciplinary suspension or expulsion;
 - c) The Student's repeated failure to keep a roommate in a double or triple room;
 - d) The Student's failure to comply with state or federal laws, University Housing policies and regulations, the Student Code of Conduct or other policies and regulations adopted by Appalachian State University or the University of North Carolina, whether such policies and regulations are now in effect or later enacted after due notice thereof.
 - e) Failure to occupy the assigned space before the established deadline for each semester or abandonment of the space by the Student (Failure to occupy the space does not automatically result in contract cancellation if the student has signed the housing contract and remains an enrolled student at Appalachian State University.)
 - f) The Student's disruption to any residence hall community by behaving in a way that is not conducive to group living and/or has a negative effect on other students in the community.
 - g) Should this Contract be terminated by the University, the Student will be required to vacate the residence hall within 24 hours unless special permission, in writing, has been granted by the Director of University Housing or his/her designee. In the event the Student does not vacate within the allotted time period, any property remaining in the residence hall room or building may be treated as abandoned property or stored and held under limited access. All charges for removal, disposal and storage will be assessed to the Student. In the event this Contract is terminated by the University for cause, the Student will remain liable for the entire amount of the housing charges for the full term of this Contract.

Article IV. Obligations of the University

- 1) Provide utilities which are included in the fee charged on this Contract as follows: electricity, sewer, water, and internet. Student is expected to use these utilities in a conservative, economic and efficient manner. In the event of mechanical, electrical or water difficulties, the University shall make all reasonable effort to restore service but shall give no abatement in room rates, release from obligations of this Contract or be held liable for inconvenience or damage to property due to a loss of service or the inability to restore service. Utility services may be reduced or cut off during University holidays or prolonged breaks in the interest of energy conservation, maintenance or safety.
- 2) Conduct inspections at least once each session for the following:
 - a) Health and Safety Inspections – Inspections shall be conducted at least once each session by University Housing staff. University Housing will notify the Student at least 48 hours in advance of the inspections. The staff will be looking for violations using mandatory guidelines set by Appalachian State University. Violations include illegal items, fire safety issues, unsanitary conditions or damages. If violations exist, those violations are documented and appropriate actions will be taken and/or charges will be assessed to the Student's account. University Housing staff do have the right to enter rooms with or without the Student present for these inspections.
 - b) Kitchen and Bath – Inspections are done at least once per session to determine a consistent standard of cleanliness using mandatory guidelines set by Appalachian State University. University Housing will notify the Student at least one week prior to the inspection. If areas affected do not pass inspection, notice will be left and the Student will have one week to re-clean area(s). At that time, University Housing staff will conduct a second inspection. If affected areas do not pass the second inspection, housekeeping staff will clean and the Student's account will be charged accordingly. University Housing staff do have the right to enter areas for inspection with or without the Student being present.
- 3) Provide the following furnishings in each residence hall: a twin-size bed with mattress, chest of drawers, a desk and a chair. Furniture may not be placed in storage and must remain in the Student's room. Furniture from public areas of the hall may not be brought into the Student's room.

Article V. Obligations of the Student

- 1) Policies and regulations are in place for the safety and security of all residence hall students, and acceptance of this Contract binds the Student to abide by all University policies, including but not limited to University Housing policies. Failure to abide by the listed policies may result in disciplinary sanctions, removal from the residence hall or termination of this Contract. Residence Hall policies are posted on the University Housing website (<http://housing.appstate.edu/policies>). The Student is expected to know and abide by all University policies, including University Housing specific policies.
- 2) Public Health - Students must follow University isolation and quarantine procedures, including relocation to a designated building for self-quarantine and/or isolation until they meet the applicable CDC or other public health and University requirements for release if they test positive for any communicable disease. Students may be required to move to another quarantine/isolation space if they have been exposed to someone who has tested positive for a communicable disease, and may be required to remain in this space for appropriate quarantine, as established by CDC guidelines and other applicable public health and University requirements. Students may need to be tested if they become symptomatic and agree to self-isolate until test results are known. Students agree to the communicable disease testing protocol established by the University, including periodic community wide testing as may be required by the University now or at a future date. Students understand that the policies of University Housing may be modified as a result of any communicable disease and students agree to follow directives and instructions from University Housing staff designed to protect the public health and safety of the campus community. Students will take reasonable precautions and minimize travel and contact with people outside of the residence hall in an effort to curtail the spread/exposure of communicable disease on campus. Students will adhere to local, state, and federal recommendations and guidelines regarding any communicable diseases.
- 3) Liability - The Student shall indemnify and hold harmless Appalachian State University and its trustees, agents, employees, representatives and volunteers for any and all liabilities, losses, costs, damages, claims or causes of action of any kind or nature whatsoever, and expenses, including attorneys' fees, arising or claimed to have arisen out of any injuries or damages received or sustained by the Student as a result of negligence on the part of the University or its trustees, agents or employees, in the execution, performance or enforcement of this Contract, and any injuries or damages received or sustained by any third party or to the Student as a result of any intentional or negligent acts or omissions on the part of the Student, whether any such injuries or losses occur in residence hall rooms, public areas, or elsewhere on the campus. The Student is encouraged to carry insurance of the Student's choice for protection against such losses and claims.

Article VII – Additional Terms

- 1) Private Property – The residence halls are considered private property, reserved for the exclusive use of residents, invited guests and authorized University personnel only.
- 2) Changes in policies – The living and studying conditions of an educational institution are unique and may require adjustment from time to time for the mutual benefit of the University and the residents. University Housing may make changes in official administrative policies as deemed necessary in the interest of health, safety, discipline of residents or University employees or for educational purposes. Notifications of changes to these policies will be communicated to the Student via postings in the residence halls, electronic mail and/or other electronic media as available.

- 3) Location of additional policy information – Detailed information on University Housing policies and procedures outlined in this Contract can be found on the University Housing website. Information regarding campus policies can be found in the University's Policy Manual at http://policy.appstate.edu/Policy_Manual. In addition, the University's Code of Student Conduct and Academic Integrity is available at <http://studentconduct.appstate.edu>.
- 4) Third Party Owned Housing – Thunder Hill Hall and Laurel Creek Hall (a "Third Party Owned Facility") are owned by Beyond Boone, LLC (the "Company"), and operated and managed by the University as its agent for the Company. If you are assigned to a Third Party Owned Facility, you are entering into this Housing Agreement with the University as agent for the Company, and you hereby acknowledge that this Housing Agreement has been assigned by the Company in favor of Wilmington Trust, National Association, its successor and assigns (the "Trustee"). In the future and during the term of this Housing Agreement, you may be required to follow the instructions of the Trustee, its designee or subsequent owner from time to time upon the terms set forth in such Housing Agreement.
- 5) Contract Violations – Violations of any of the provisions in this Contract, the Code of Student Conduct or other official University policies will be considered a violation of this Contract and may be referred to appropriate University personnel for disciplinary action. Students in violation of local, state or federal law may face criminal investigation and prosecution by local law enforcement as well as University disciplinary sanctions.
- 6) Changes in terms – This instrument and all addenda thereto, constitutes the complete agreement between the parties and no modification or amendment thereof shall be binding unless it is reduced to writing and signed by an authorized representative of both parties and attached hereto.
- 7) Appeals – The Student may appeal any fee charged by University Housing. To appeal any charge, the Student must submit a written petition to the Director of University Housing or his/her designee explaining the reason(s) for the request.
- 8) Governing Law – This Contract shall be governed, construed and enforced by the laws of the State of North Carolina (excluding any conflict of laws provisions of the State of North Carolina which would refer to and apply the substantive laws of another jurisdiction). Any suit or proceeding shall be brought in the courts located in the State of North Carolina.
- 9) Entire Agreement - This Contract states the entire agreement between the parties to this Contract as of the date of the final signature with respect to the subject matter of this Contract and supersedes any previous written or oral representations, statements, negotiations, or agreements.

My signature acknowledges that I have read, understand, and agree to abide by all terms and conditions of this Residence Hall License Contract.
